Fire and Inland Navigation Risks accepted at terms consistent with solvency and fair profit. Especial attention given to Insurance of DWELLINGS and Contents, for terms of 1 to 5 years.

The progress of this Corporation has been stable and uninterrupted through seasons of financial sunshine and storm, or periods eventful in or exempt from sweeping conflagrations and maratime disaster. Being long established on a cash basis, the troubles of the credit system affect us in no material particular.

During "hard times" the security of reliable Insurance is an imperative duty—the ability of property owners to sustain loss being then nuch lessened.

> Every crisis in the affairs of the country, and every important national question which has arisen for the adjustment of Congress since the foundation of our Government has produced, to a greater or less extent, new political combinations and changes in the construction of parties. In England, a man who is born to the peerage may be safely set down for a tory all his lifetime; but in the United States it often occurs that citizens, prominent in politics, in the course of a long series of years change their party as-sociations if not their general views and principles. Such new political combinations are occurring at every step in our national career .-Every new issue which presents itself, and every complication in our domestic or foreign policy, developes a new party in opposition to that great Democratic organization which is devoted to the maintenance of the federal compact in its original spirit and integrity. Indeed, opposition to the Democracy, whatever ground it may assume or means adopt. to carry out its primary objects, has always been the life and essence of every temporary combination which has arisen to con-test the field of national politics and strive for the control of the Federal Government. Even the Democratic party itself is not individually the same at various stages of its existence.— While preserving its name and distinctive prin and maintaining its position and ascen ciples, dancy through nearly every great struggle, both elective and legislative, since the adoption of the constitution, it has, nevertheless, like the huma oody, which is constantly assimilating and rejecting its constituent elements, undergone many material changes of composition in the course of a single generation. Upon the policy of the last war with Great Britain and the war with Mexico, upon the question both of the establishment and repeal of the Missouri Compromise, upon the issue of the admission of Texas, of a national bank, the independent treasury, the tariff, the compromise measures, the Kansas-Nebraska act, native Americanism, and all the ever-varying, never cuding phases of anti-slavery, the Demo-cratic party has lost and won a multitude of ad-herents, among the masses as well as in the walks of public life, without in the least affecting its integrity or arrresting its triumphant progress .-Although the position it assumed in reference to each of these issues was the signal for the deertion of many of its trusted and prominent leaders, and though its enemies, as now, predicted its defeat and speedy dissolution when grappling with these momentous questions, the result ly proved them false prophets, but vindieated the wisdom of its policy, and ultimatel-strengthened and consolidated its organization -Its action upon every measure of importance has been invariably endorsed by the people of this country when fairly presented as the test of its patriotism and political rectitude; and its cours ipon that question which at present engrosses the attention of Congress and the country will in like manner, when prejudice and excitement shall have given place to calm deliberation, stand the test of intelligent serutiny, and receive the verdict of popular approbation.

It is a well known historical fact that the admission of Louisiana, Missouri, and Texas, was opposed with even greater vehemence and pertisectional grounds, Upon the question of admitting Texas, in particular, the same cry of border ruffianism was raised, and the same proerastinating, disingenious tactics were pursued by the opposition as in the present case, with the exception that the North then refused to recognize or acquiesce in the Missouri Compromise. It will be remembered, too, that upon this ques tion some of the foremost and honored chamof the Democratic party, including Martin Van Buren and Thos. H. Beutou, seeded from its or ganization, carrying with them into the free soil ranks a powerful faction in the Northern States and justifying their apostacy, lke certain parti sans in reference to Lecomptor, upon the plea that Texas was not legitimately a party measure, tions. But notwithstanding this specious pre-tense, the recusants did sacrific; both their party and its relatious in 1848, by thus playing into the hands of the opposition, and those of the anti-Lecompton school are laboring to do the same thing in 1860, and can only be prevented by prompt exposure of their designs and the just reprobation which they deserve at the hands of the national Democracy.

But those who were misled by false impres sions and sectional sympathics upon the Texas question soon discovered their nistake; and, like the prodigal son, finding they had got into bad company, hastened to return 5 their old asso ciates and the paternal mansion; and the bulk of these very descriers, with ther principal leaders, are again with us in the present crisis, breasting the shock of sectional fanaticsm to which they once yielded, and standing fimly by the admin istration in its Kaansas policy of immediate admission. We say to parents, if your children are sickly, puny or afflicted with complaints prevalent among children give them a small quantity of McLean's Cordial, and will make them healthy, fat, and robust. Delay not moment, try it and you will be convinced. IT IS DELICIOUS TO TAKE.

EVERY COUNTRY MERCHANT

Should not leave the city until the had procured a supply of McLean's Strengthening Cordial. It sells rapidly, because it always cures. A liberal discount will be made to those who buy to sell again.

CAUTION—Beware of druggists or dealers who may try to pain upon you some Bitter or Sarsaparilla trash, which they can buy cheap, by saying its just as good.—Avoid such men. Ask for McLean's strengthening Cordial, and take nothing else. It is the only remedy that will purify the hiood thoroughly, and at the same time strengthen the system.

One tablespoonful taken every morning fasting is a certain preventive for Cholera, Chills and Fover, Yellow Fever, orany prevalent disease.

Price only $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.

Democracy.

Of all the absurd and pernicious theories which have emanated from the ill-balanced brains of political schemers and which have been reckless. ly defended by their unthinking followers, the most dangerous in its practice and tendencies is that now almost universally held by National Democrats, that a majority ean change a State Constitution at pleasure, notwithstanding any provision in that Constitution itself to the contrary. It is admitted by all true lovers of liberty that every man has inherently the natural right to resist oppression and tyranny, and few Ameri cans will be found in whose hearts there is not est of American statesmen, that "resistance to tyrants is obedience to God." The natural right of communities of men to form organizations to resist and overturn governments which trample them under foot, and to resort to violence in setting aside governments when their is no legal mode of gaining their liberties, is undoubted; it has been implanted by the Almighty in the nature of man, and is a heaven deseended boon. This is the right of revolution. It is the same right by which our English aueestors rose in their majesty, and, under the lead of Oliver Cromwell, and then beheaded him, their King. It is the same right by which Protestant England, led on to victory and honor and religious and civil freedom by the sour visaged and melaneholly Dutchman, the gallant and chivalrous and heroic Prince of Orange, stripped the purple robes from the form his hellish minions the leaden death and stricken battle in the ford of the river Boyne .-It is the same right, too, by which our own ancestors of 1776, led on to liberty, by God's chosen servant, George Washington, resisted the fleets and armies of the erazed Monwere struck in defiance of estabthe natural right to resist an unendurable law, eeeded? but he can have no legal right to do that which No one could have supposed that the Southern the hands of one jutelligent man, is far prefera ble to the despotism of an ignorant and stupid

She will ascend by the strength of her own disfranchised tution, is for the people of the United States to soul to a proud position, and while retaining all soul to a proud position, and while retaining all rally around the American party, who will defend there sweet womanly nature and sympathies, will that Union against all attacks whether they come yet take her stand with man on the plane of intellectual achievement.

Why do we waste our precious school hours in the acquisition of useless and superficial accomplishments, to be forgotten when the after years of life surround us with high responsibilities? Should we not rather learn the management of this most womanly agent of domestic reform whose musical song is the Marseilles Hymn of woman's social redempton? Why is not the sewng machine introduced into our system of publie instruction? why has it not a place in every chool-room in the land? What branch of eduous mission it is to economize our time and able us to improve the rational powers conferred on us by the Creator.

Let us then forego the multitudes of useless occupations that now engross our time, and learn to interpret the great lesson taught us by the cheerful and musical language of this domestic Angel of the hearth-stone.—Life Illustrated.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE. DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.

DEFIANCE is a rich mahogony bay; 15½ bands high; with beavy black mane and tail; possessing fine bone; great length, and oxtraordinary gayety; and presenting in his appearance, a remarkable combination of the thorough bred with the harness horse. He was sired by old Deflance, who was the sire of Lany Moscow, and innumerable other trotting celebrities. His dam, (Matiida Minks.) herself very celebrated both for trotting and pacing, was a Canadian mare of the most select breed. Old Deflance was by Cock of the Rock; he by Duroc; he by old Messenger. Cock of the Rock was full brother in blood to American Eclipse.

DEFIANCE was purchased from his breeder in DEFIANCE was purchased from his breeder in Carada last fail as a stock horse, both en account of his great perfection of form, color, gayety, natural speed, and graceful action, and for the high character and reputation of the stock from which he is both directly and remotely desceaded. He was exhibited in the fast ring at the Buitimore Fair, six weeks after his arrival, and, without any training, went his mile in 2 minutes 46 seconds, taking the second premium.

I am standing him at this low rate on ecount of the hard times, with the purpose of inducing farmers generally to improve the character of the horse stock of the cownity, being well assured that no horse in the State will contribute more to that end.

GLASGOW, Ky., December 23, 1857. GLASOOW, KY., December 23, 1857.

Dear Sir:—Having disposed of our Printing Office in Elizabethtown, Ky., and renaved to Glasgow with the view of permanently locating we purpose commencing the publication of a newspaper sometime during the month of February, to be entitled "THE GLASGOW FREE PRESS." It will be devoted to Goneral Literature, Politics, Agriculture, the Arisand Sciences, News, and especially to the promotion and advancement of the local and general interests of the town and county, and those adjacent. No palus or exertion on our part will be intermitted to secure due consideration for all local enterprises, that may be calculated to advance the iocal enterprises, that may be calculated to advance the general weal of the community.

An earnest effort will be made to render it a valuable family newspaper, acceptante to all parties, combining a variety of lateresting and instructive subjects in its columns. Having had considerable experience in the family newspaper, acceptable to all parties, combining a variety of interesting and instructive subjects in its columns. Having had considerable experience in the quasiness, and being practically familiar with its mechanical duties, we indulge the hope that we shall be enabled to subserve to some extent, the interests to which the "FFEE Parss" will be dedicated.

American Politics at the present time, may be said very justly, to be in a chrysalis state. We do not de sign, in this Prospectus, to enter the domain of speculation. It is not necessary to the present purpose, or todefine our political position. This any be defined very briefly. We are conscientiously opposed to the practices and the precepts of Modern Democracy. We regard the bemocratic party, is now constituted, essentially an alien party; and consider its alias and purposes, as avowed by its organs, practiced by its leaders, and developed in the present administration, pregnant with evitto the Union, in violation of the plan hejametions of the early fathers, and disastrous to American Nationality. We recognize in the "Address of the American Party," promulgated at the Louisville Convention, a political creed, einhently national, eminently conservative, and peculiarily adapted to present exigencies. We believe that in the fundamental principles of that organization may be found the panacea for many, if not all the political evils, which have disordered the country and fomented sectional strife, and which it is now in evident contemplation to aggravate by unwise and imprudent legislation.

Whilst we shall alm to be perfectly independent and honest in the expression of our views of public men and proper respect for the opinions of others, whose convictions may lead them to differ with us. It is the peculiarity and the boast of American institutions, that they secure to each and every one the "free and untranmeled ed expression of his opinions." In no other government is this perfect freedom of opinion in the citizen to its State. Our whole system of g
